6: Roberts and Jenness--13 (1914-1916) 1925 Copper Eskimo
619, 721, 609

"Two subjects are noticeably lacking [JMR: in dance songs], war and love. The Copper Eskimos had not advanced beyond the blood-feud, and organized war was beyond their conception. Neighbouring bands were connected by blood and marriage, and their only enemies, the Indians in the south, were rarely seen and carefully avoided."
